in partnership with the
Melbourne Queer Film Festival

making a difference... together...

Welcome to the 4th Bendigo Queer Film Festival (BQFF) and what a wonder-full weekend for you to enjoy!!!

The BQFF is a very recognized event on the GLBTI calendar and this year's theme is of celebration, joy and 'lushness'. This festival matters and makes a difference and continues to enhance the cultural diversity of Central Victoria. We have seven great film sessions playing over the weekend and once again we acknowledge the continued and very valued support of Lisa Daniel and Rowena Doo from the Melbourne Queer Film Festival (MQFF). MQFF makes a difference and allows BQFF to expand and grow in an important and future directed way.

Our theme colour this year is red and we commence with the opening of the Seeing 'Red' Art Exhibition at Dudley House on Friday 30th March at 6.30pm. This free Art Exhibition will be open to the public all weekend. Enjoy the creativity of the colour red and all that this Art Exhibition may stand for.

We also need to acknowledge Friends Alike Bendigo Central Victoria (FABCV Group) and their creation of the Fabulous After Party on Saturday evening. Lots of surprises and fantastic entertainment, and back by popular demand we welcome Kaye Sera and Luke Gallagher.

We welcome our BQFF 2007 Patron - Anton Enus, TV Celebrity, Newsreader - World News Australia, SBS Television. A breakfast with Anton will be held on Sunday morning commencing at 10.00am at the Shamrock Hotel. Be sure to book your tickets.

There is one group of dedicated people who have committed many hours to make this festival happen and they are the fabulous BQFF 2007 Committee Members: Daniel Borton, Mark Dean, Raph Beh, Alice Macartney, Denise Deason, Jeremy James, Jay Chapman, Ada Milley, Julian Regan and Trish Shanahan - a huge big thank you for your continued commitment and support and want for a great festival.

And there is one woman that needs to be acknowledged on her own - this woman is Chris Walters (Chris is the creator or founder of BQFF) - her bold vision of creating a queer film festival in rural Victoria continues to grow and flourish which is just fantastic.

We also have some great businesses on board, their support both in sponsorship and advertising allows the festival to grow and expand further each year. Thank you to you all.

This 2007 festival stands strong, stands in boldness of a different future and says enjoy, have fun and celebrate YOU.

Go well and expect greatness in your world.

Melbourne Queer Film Festival

The Melbourne Queer Film Festival (MQFF) is proud to co-present and curate the 4th annual Bendigo Queer Film Festival. With each year that passes, the Bendigo Queer Film Festival grows in reputation and in its ability to attract an increasingly diverse and well developed schedule of films. With the continued support of Bendigo area film lovers, the BQFF will continue to attract the best available films from the local and international queer film circuit.

This year's Australian shorts package is an excellent selection of the latest in Australian queer filmmaking, while the boy's and girls short's packages are bound to entertain. Don't miss the multi-award winning opening night feature Whole New Thing, and the award winning lesbian feature film Red Doors – both of these titles have been huge favourites on the international festival circuit. So keep supporting your festival Bendigo and we look forward to delivering more outstanding festivals in the coming years. Enjoy the films!

Responding to Women's Needs

Women's Health Loddon Mallee

Women's Health Loddon Mallee is a non-government, not for profit organisation providing inclusive health services, information and support for all women living in the Loddon Mallee Region. Our inclusive approach to health services ensures that we celebrate diversity and promote acceptance, belonging and participation.

We recognise women's different needs and the inequalities in women's level of power and their control over resources. We attempt to counteract these inequalities by acting as agents for social change, working to overcome deprivation and disadvantage experienced by some women and to promote social inclusion. In partnership with women, the community, and health service providers, our focus and commitment are to improve the health and wellbeing of rural women.

Session 1

Whole New Thing

Dir: Amnon Buchbinder, Canada, 2005, 35mm, 93 mins

Canada consistently provides queer cinematic favourites (C.R.A.Z.Y., Three Needles (MQFF 2006), Touch Of Pink (MQFF 2005) are three recent examples), and Whole New Thing is set to join this illustrious list. Winner of a swag of international awards, including the Grand Jury Prize at Outfest, Whole New Thing is a wonderfully observed bittersweet comedy about the awkwardness of first love. Emerson Thorsen, 13, lives with his parents in their eco-home in the wilds of Nova Scotia. He's just had his first wet dream, and completed writing and illustrating his first book, all 1000 pages of it. However the home-schooled youth can barely add, so his mother enrolls him in the local school. There, Emerson's English teacher is Don Grant (Daniel MacIvor, star of queer classics Beefcake, The Five Senses, and who also wrote the screenplay). At 42, the solitary Don is suffering from a recent break-up and pays regular visits to a park washroom for anonymous sex. In the classroom, Emerson stirs things up, and initially scornful of his teacher, quickly develops his first crush – on Don. The precociously confident boy, raised in a household of casual nudity and sexual openness, throws himself into this awakening of his heart with dangerous abandon. (Paul Tonta, MQFF)

Winner of Outfest Award for Best international feature Film 2006.

Session 2 - Boys Shorts

Don't miss this selection of the best gay shorts from Australia and around the world.

The Best Men

Dir: Tony Wei, USA, 2006, video, 13 mins

All the best men are gay...but some just need a good reminder.

Dirty Love

Dir: Michael Tringe, USA, 2006, video, 6 mins

Teenage Derik escapes his country town for Los Angeles in search of something more. Lost in the city and seduced by a hustler, he finds himself.

Outland

Dir: John Richards, Australia, 2006, dvd, 25 mins

Max has a shameful secret – he's a science fiction fan. He thinks he's got it covered with his potential new boyfriend, but his friends from the Outland Sci Fi Club have other ideas. They're on their way over... Stars Fox FM's Adam Richards.

Hustler WP

Dir: Craig Cobbs, USA, 2006, video, 19 mins

Rolf (a white neo-Nazi skinhead) and Skahead (a black rudeboy skinhead) are unlikely friends who chase adventure when a night on the town with German backpackers beckons.

Working It Out

Dir: Tim Hunter, Australia, 2007, dvd, 6 mins

Peter and Marcus, like any good couple, do everything together, including going to the gym...so where exactly does Jeremy fit in?

Available Men

Dir: David Dean Bottrell, USA, 2005, video, 15 mins

A Hollywood agent (dispatched to sign a 'hot' new writer) and a sensitive gay man (waiting for a blind date), mistake each other for the person they were expecting to meet. Hilarity ensues.

In every community beats a queer heart...

Todd Stephens, USA, 2006, video, 90 mins

"Refreshingly crass, very funny gay spoof of teen sex romps." – Village Voice

Think you've seen the lot when it comes to gross-out, teen or queer sex comedies? Get ready for Another Gay Movie and be prepared to either laugh or be appalled (or both) non-stop for 90 minutes. This is American Pie, with an extreme queer makeover from director Todd Stephens (writer of Edge Of Seventeen). 17 year-old Andy and his pals, Jarod, the buffed jock, Griff, the shy brainiac, and Nico, edgy and alternative, are all sex-starved virgins. Out and proud, all they want is to pop their ass cherry. When they remain booty-virgins at the graduation party thrown by cheerleader-slayer Muffler, their lady-killer, mullet wearing bulldyke friend, the foursome make a pact to do 'the big A' by summer's end. With only a couple of months, the boys let it all hang out in their quest for sexual bliss. Parodying teen comedies from Pretty In Pink to American Pie and queer films such as Trick and beyond, Another Gay Move is twisted to its core and riotously funny. Don't miss it! (Paul Tonta, MQFF)

"Hysterical" – Gay.Com

*A person does not fall in love with a man or a woman
- a person falls in love
with a soul...*

Dir: Georgia Lee, USA, 2005, video, 90 mins

The Wongs are a bizarrely dysfunctional Chinese-American family living in the suburbs of New York. Family patriarch Ed Wong has just retired and harbours a secret plan to escape his unfulfilling life. However, his plans look like coming undone due to the chaos created by his three wacky and rebellious daughters. Samantha, the eldest, is a tough New York businesswoman engaged to a prominent young man, but like her father she desires a change. When she bumps into an old boyfriend during a visit home, she begins to reevaluate her life. Samantha's shy middle sister Julie is a medical student whose only social life revolves around her ballroom dance classes. However, Julie's is also turned upside down when she falls hard for Mia Scarlett – a movie star attending the hospital to research her next film role. While Julie wrestles with the ramifications of dating a major celebrity (and a glamorous woman at that!), she bravely tries to keep the family from self-combusting. Meanwhile, the youngest sister Katie engages in an elaborate and hilarious war of practical jokes with her long time neighbour Simon. Will Ed go ahead with his plans to leave the family, will Samantha stray from her conventional path, will Julie come out to her family and live happily ever after with her sexy movie star girlfriend, and what will become of Katie and Simon? Sprinkled with a healthy dose of black humour, RED DOORS blasts its way through the stereotypes of the modern Asian American family. Don't miss it! (Lisa Daniel, MQFF)

Dir: Lisa Ades & Lesli Kleinberg,
USA, 2006, video, 82 mins

Award-winning directorial team Ades and Kleinberg celebrate American queer film history from the 1940s to the contemporary queer cinema of today, featuring interviews with queer luminaries such as John Waters, John Cameron Mitchell, Guinevere Turner, Gus Van Sant, Ang Lee, Todd Haynes, Alan Cumming and B. Ruby Rich. The doco is also peppered with excellent clips from groundbreaking films such as Hedwig And The Angry Inch, Gro Fish, Heavenly Creatures, Tongues Untied to name a few, as well as more pioneering works such as Fireworks. Building on Vito Russo's seminal work in The Celluloid Closet, Fabulous! The Story Of Queer Cinema helps to chart how far we've come from moralistic and clichéd representations of homosexuality seen in previous decades to the more realistic portrayals of contemporary queer cinema. Don't miss this selection of the latest shorts from emerging Australian filmmakers which vied for the City of Melbourne Award for Best Australian Short Film at the recent 17th Melbourne Queer Film Festival.

Chalk Lines

Dir: Dan Brophy, Australia, 2006, video, 9 mins

Agosto endures the blight of unrequited love and must come to terms with his feelings for his handsome young English teacher. World premiere.

Aly M

Dir: Adrian Francis, Australia, 2006, video, 5 mins

A young Australian Muslim lesbian tries to reconcile her opposing lives and beliefs.

Two Nights

Dir: Rolmar Baldonada, Australia, 2006, video, 11 mins

Over two nights a young Chinese immigrant has sexual encounters with two very different individuals. Consequently, he has to choose between the one he wants or the one who wants him.

Attack

Dir: Timothy Smith, Australia/UK, 2005, 35mm, 7 mins

A neo-Nazi skinhead is apprehended because he has attacked two black teenage boys. As we are taken backwards through the story we realise that things may not be as 'black & white' as they appear.

Prada Handbag

Dir: Stuart Vauvert, Australia, 2006, video, 22 mins

What's a girl to do when a rare hair-loss condition leaves her with an obsession for zany wigs and make-up? Become a drag queen of course!

And Everything Nice

Dir: Craig Boreham & Peta Jane Lenehan, Australia, 2006, video, 7 mins

The curiosity of a schoolgirl leads her to skip a day at school to observe a classmate as she wanders through the city.

Cabalerno

Dir: Jarrah Gurie, Australia/USA, 2006, video, 7 mins

A quiet guy coming to terms with his sexuality gets caught pointing a video camera at his strapping young crush; an olive skinned skateboarder. After an initial awkwardness, the two boys must deal with unanticipated feelings.

Not Waving, Drowning

Dir: Michael Trower, Australia, 2006, dvd, 9 mins

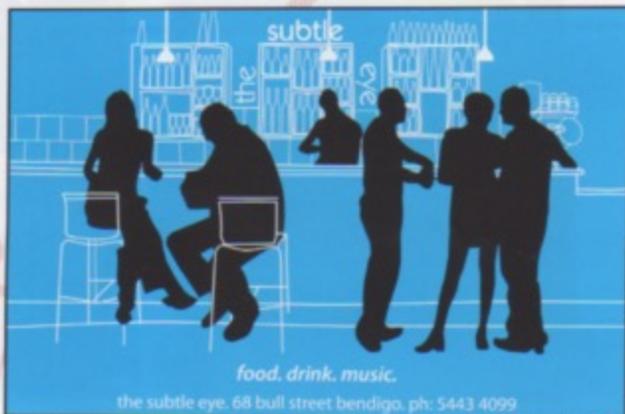

Stuart is a teenager struggling to stay afloat. Taunted as a 'faggot' at school, He hides his feelings and his body from everyone as he finds destructive ways to deal with his sexuality.

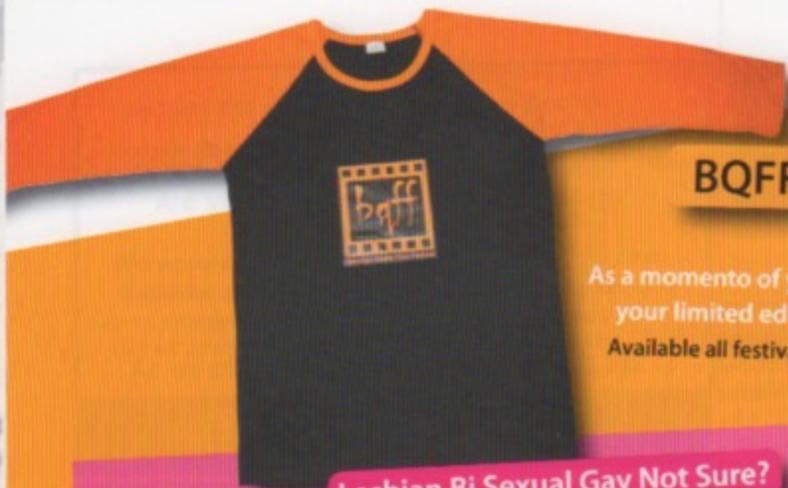

Sexy Thing

Dir: Denie Pentecost, Australia, 2006, 35mm, 14 mins

On a dry suburban day, as 12 year old is caught between the conflicting worlds of family, friendship and imagination. Struggling to endure a confusing love, and longing simply to be seen, the child survives by transforming pain into beauty.

Stars Catherine Mc Clements, Chris Vance.
